Specialty Coffees

From The Tap

Rickards White

This new Rickards has a citrus twist, a welcomed addition to the family.

Rickards Red

Made with a unique blend of 3 different malted barleys. The result is an unbelievably smooth & delicious red beer with exceptional drinkability.

Killkenny Cream Ale

An amber colored Irish Ale noted for it's creamy body and smooth finish.

Stella Artios

The mild flavour is simple and mellow grass tones and mild bitterness are the lone major flavours, but there is a slight hint of citrus. Crisp with a clean finish, Belgium's best known golden lager.

Labatt Blue

Brewed to exacting standards, this classic pilsner-styled lager is light gold in colour with a slightly hoppy aroma. Labatt Blue features good balance, fruity character and a slightly sweet taste.

Bud Light

Famous for it's crisp, clean, puree and refreshing taste, Bud light is a great choice for those who understand less is more.

McAuslan Oatmeal Stout

Brewed from 40% dark malts and roasted barley, this intensely black ale carries strong hints of espresso and chocolate. Oatmeal contributes body and a long lasting mocha-coloured head to this well hopped beer.

Coors Lite

"The Silver Bullet"

Smithwicks

A medium bodied amber ale with malty palate and a subtle bitter finish.

Budweiser

Brewed and sold since 1876, "The king of Beers" is the largest selling beer in the

Pumphouse Seasonal

Alexander Keiths Light

Created in the same vein as Alexander Keith's India Pale Ale, this Ale is light in color and hopped in flavour.

Clancy's

Clancy's is a smooth, full bodied amber ale made with two types of malt, hops, corn and true top fermenting ale yeast to create a medium bodied, English style beer. Clancy's is craft brewed and aged longer for taste, giving it a sweet, malty aroma with a hint of coffee and fleeting bitter taste.

St. Ambroise Cream Ale

A smooth & creamy ale from Montreal's well respected McAuslan Microbrewery.

Alexander Keiths Pale Ale

This approachable Canadian pale ale is Nova Scotia's most popular beer.

Guinness Stout

With its full body and dry roasted black malt flavour, Guinness is the defining Irish Stout.

Moose Light

A true Canadian style lager, Moose Light is fermented and cold aged longer to produce a crisp, highly refreshing beer with a smooth after taste and well balanced flavour.

Moosehead Pale Ale

A full bodied 5% ale appreciated by those seeking an ale of unquestionable origin. It is brewed with premium malt and European hops using the traditional top fermentation process, to produce a flavourful smooth ale with a remarkable clean finish.

Alpine Lager

Alpine Lager is an award winning 5% alcohol beer that is slowly aged to give it a light color and medium body, with a fleeting hop bitterness and slightly sweet malty aroma, making it a preferred choice of Maritimes.

Pumphouse Burns Scotch Ale

Moncton's Pumphouse brewery uses pealed malt to give a smokey tang to this dark ale.

Pumphouse Bitter

Moncton's Pumphouse special old bitter has a beautiful bitterness with hints of caramel and hazelnuts.

Heineken

Its mildly bitter taste, fresh, fruity aroma, bright colour and exceptional clarity are obtained using only the purest water, hops and barley malt.

Alexander Keiths Pale Ale

Brewed in Halifax, this red ale has medium body.
